HEADLINE: MPA Skills Plumbing & Painting Training and Apprentice Employment (MPA Skills) facilitated the Hon Scott Morrison MP Prime Minister's visit to Sanwell Plumbing & Civil in Perth.

MPA Skills was proud to facilitate Hon Prime Minister Scott Morrison MP's visit to Sanwell Plumbing & Civil. The trip was also accompanied by the Minister for Employment, Workforce, Skills, Small and Family Business Hon Stuart Robert MP, Assistant Minister to the Prime Minister Hon Ben Morton MP, Federal member for Swan Steve Irons MP and Liberal for Swan, Kristy McSweene, where the Prime Minister made an announcement on the continuation of the Boosting and Completing Apprenticeship Commencements funding.

MPA Skills' Apprentice Employment apprentices, Sanwell apprentices and staff showed the Prime Minister and guests around the Sanwell site and talked about a range of topics, including what it is like to be an apprentice with MPA Skills and some of the initiatives we have underway to improve the quality of training in the plumbing and painting industries.

MPA Skills' CEO, Mr Ben Dahlstrom thanked Brendan Long of Sanwell for hosting the visit and for their track record in training the next generation of plumbers.

"MPA Skills continues to work hard to lobby the government at all levels on behalf of the painting and plumbing industries and is honoured that the Prime Minister chose us to work with on the announcement of these national initiatives."
